

Centennial Coal Company Limited
Exploration Titles
Landholder Liaison Program
Mine or Project:	Airly Colliery
Relevant Titles:	A232
Holder:	Centennial Airly Pty Limited
Locality:	Capertee
Purpose:	Exploration Licences allow the holder to undertake certain prospecting activities to explore for and define coal deposits within the licence area.
Permitted Activities:	Geological mapping Airborne surveys Geophysical and seismic surveys Drilling and sampling Excavation for bulk sampling
Contact Details:	Please ring the Community Contact Line for the relevant Mine or Project. This number can be found on the Contacts tab on the Centennial Coal Web Site or via email at info.airly@centennialcoal.com.au
Available Information:
The following information is available upon request: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current Exploration Activities at the Mine or Project • A map showing the location and extent of the Exploration Licences for the Mine or Project • FAQ about exploration activities • Access to further information that is available on the NSW Government website for Resource & Energy - http://www.dpi.nsw.gov.au/minerals
General Details:
Exploration activities will be undertaken in accordance with the conditions of the relevant Exploration Title, the Mining Act 1992 and generally require environmental studies and notifications before activities can commence.
Activities under an Exploration Licence on private property may only be undertaken once a written access agreement between the landowner and the mining company is in place.
The predominant exploration activity is borehole drilling to extract a core samples for testing and analysis.	